On a separate piece of paper, answer the following questions following appropriate response to literature guidelines:

1. What is the significance of Winston's dream about his mother and sister being down in a deep "saloon"?
2. What is the symbolism in the dark haired girl "throwing aside her uniform" in his dream?
3. What is Winston's job? Does he like it? Why?
4. What does Winston know about the past?
5. What is INGSOC? What is Doublethink?
6. What does "Who controls the past controls the future. Who controls the present controls the past," mean?
7. How is language an issue of control and identity?
8. What does Parsons represent? How is his family, and the stories he tells about them indicative of this?
