On a separate piece of paper, answer the following questions following appropriate response to literature guidelines:

1. What reasons does Winston give for renting the room? Since Julia agreed with such eagerness, does she concur with Winston's decision? What does the room represent to the two of them?
2. What fear of Winston's is revealed in chapter IV?
3. Winston calls the room a paradise. How is the room a paradise for him?
4. What is Hate Week? Describe some of the preparations for it.
5. What evidence is given in this chapter to suggest that the war is not real?
6. What is the "thought crime" committed in chapter VI?
7. What does Winston identify as the ultimate defeat at the hands of the Party?
8. In chapter VIII, Winston and Julia pay a visit to O'Brien. What had they "done...at last"?
