

Name _____ Date _____

British Literature: Write your Own Ballad

Evaluating rubric

Objective: Use your knowledge of medieval ballads, modern ballads, and elements of poetry -such as rhyme, meter, repetition and other devices- to write your own ballad.

Instructions: Rate your peer's poem from 1 to 4, according to how well he/she accomplished each requirement in the poem. If your partner did not get a 4 in any of the elements, make sure you include comments in the right hand box to help your partner improve his draft,

Poetry elements	Rating	Comments
The poem tells a story
The poem is written in quatrains
There is a rhyming scheme present
There is a discernible meter; the lines are consistent in number of syllables.
The poem evokes emotion.		